The Hilton at the Ageas Bowl is a fantastic offering answering to a growing demand for upscale accommodation among both leisure and business travellers from within the UK and overseas. A hotel of choice for both the savvy business traveller who recognises and values true comfort, business convenience and assurance of quality and efficiency, as well as the leisure traveller who wants the combination of location, style and relaxation.

We offer 171 Guest Rooms including 7 Suites and a Presidential Suite, the first eforea spa in the south UK and the largest hotel meeting facility in the region for up to 700 delegates. An ideal venue and location with direct access to Southampton Airport, Southampton Cruise terminal and other leisure attractions. The Solent Region has a broad range of activities available to our guests, the Hilton at the Ageas Bowl will be seen as the destination itself, offering true Hilton hospitality, whilst having the opportunity to watch domestic and international cricket. A great destination where guests can be themselves, hosting business meetings, sightseeing or just purely relaxing.

The Ageas Bowl is the iconic home of Hampshire Cricket, located on the outskirts of Southampton. The world-class venue, defined by its contemporary architecture, is set in 150 acres of landscaped grounds and is serviced by excellent transport links. The Ageas Bowl is a truly exceptional multi-purpose venue, capable of hosting events spanning from large regional exhibitions to intimate corporate breakfast meetings and almost any bespoke event in between.
